

Who's Involved in Making a Picture Book?

Publisher

The one who owns the ISBN of the book and distributes it to be sold.
Hires/Contracts work from everyone below

Author

Takes care of the words with the help of an:

Artist/Illustrator

Takes care of the pictures with the help of an:

Editor

works with Author to bring out their very best story (sometimes a copy editor is hired to double check the text)

Art Director

works with Artist to bring out their very best artwork

Book Designer

Brings the author's words and illustrator's art together to create the overall design of the book and the final computer files for the printer

Artwork is professionally scanned or photographed

Book Production Manager

Oversees the logistics of the printed book, such as scanning of artwork, checking for errors, and other book details

Printer

Turns the computer files into a printed bound book and prints the number of copies the publisher requests sends all of the finished books to publisher to distribute and sell